Ms. Yu Jin Lee is a partner at Jipyong whose practice focuses on initial public offerings and equity finance, with broader expertise in corporate governance, M&A, international transactions, and financial regulation.

Ms. Lee possesses extensive practical experience across capital market transactions, including listings, paid-in capital increases, and mezzanine financing for both domestic and foreign companies. She regularly handles listing and financial regulatory matters, including close consultations with relevant authorities such as the Ministry of Economy and Finance (MOEF), the Financial Supervisory Service (FSS), the Korea Exchange (KRX), and the Korea Securities Depository (KSD).

Ms. Lee has a particular strength in corporate governance restructuring, disclosure, and internal control issues across both pre- and post-IPO stages. In matters involving complex interests, such as management-control disputes, exercising shareholder rights, and decisions on the timing and structure of investment exits, she provides practical solutions that account for both regulatory considerations and capital-market practice, and she is known for balancing the interests of companies, shareholders, investors, and regulators.

Qualified in both Korea and New York, Ms. Lee brings a deep understanding of domestic and international legal environments. Her background includes working in-house at a global corporation and collaborating closely with international legal teams. She excels at bridging legal theory with real-world practice. Combining thorough legal analysis with a strong sense of responsibility, she guides clients through IPOs, transfers of management control, strategic and financial investments, and cross-border transactions. Throughout every matter, her ultimate goal is to secure long-term growth and operational stability for her clients.
